

Millcreek is a “New” but “Old” and “built-out” City (Settled 1848, incorporated 2016) and Utah’s Twelfth Largest (pop. 64,000)

A new city center is being created east of Brickyard (1300 East 3300 South)

The city center will be anchored by a park/plaza following a fault line.

MILLCREEK Common

When built out, it will be a six-acre linear open space surrounded by retail, restaurant, office, residential, potential theaters & a new city hall.

Millcreek Common will be programmed year-round with events and activities (ice skating, farmers markets, yoga classes, outdoor concerts, ethnic festivals, ping pong tournaments, etc.).
